- Name of the researcher;
- Address;
- Telephone;
- Email;
- Institution of origin (if applicable);
- Name of advisor (if any), and;
- Any other information that facilitates your identification.

b) The other two files (one in word and the other in PDF), must have both a cover page with the name of the work and the selected pseudonym.

3.- Papers must be written in Spanish, English or French, with a maximum length of three hundred pages and following a methodology appropriate to the topic.

The source programs will be accompanied, if that were the case.

4.- For the evaluation of each of the works, the following considerations will be taken into account:

- Nature of the investigation;
- Application of a rigorous research methodology;
- Contribution and innovation of criteria;
- The applicability;
- The depth of the investigation.

5.- The works will be evaluated through a triple blind process.

6.- The deadline for receipt is August 31, 2023 at 6:00 p.m. Mexico City time. Any work not submitted within the terms will be considered as not submitted.
